

Tony Mitchell

Past Chair
The Multicultural Foodservice & Hospitality Alliance
Appointed: 2011

Tony Mitchell is the immediate past chair of The Multicultural Foodservice & Hospitality Alliance (MFHA).

Currently, Mitchell serves as chief financial officer of Morrison Management Specialists, a division of contract foodservice company Compass Group, PLC. He began his career with Morrison in 1999 and has served as both chief information officer and vice president of finance.

A top-level executive, Mitchell has a proven track record in operations, cash flow, profitability, and growth. Before joining the foodservice industry, he served as chief financial officer for two securities broker/dealer firms. In addition, he has worked in the technology industry and with "Big 8" public accounting firms.

A committed member of MFHA since 2002, Mitchell has served as chairman (2009-2011), vice chairman (2007-2009), and treasurer (2005-2007). His operational and managerial experience was showcased during MFHA's Diverse Executives Panel.

Mitchell received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Accounting from Kent State University in Kent, OH. In addition, he attended The Wharton School of Business' Executive Education program in Creating Value through Financial Management at the University of Pennsylvania.
